

JESUS TEACHES US TO CARE FOR OTHERS

One day, Jesus told this story. A man was traveling when he was met by robbers. The robbers beat him up and took everything he had. The man was left all hurt and by the side of the road.

Two other men each passed by the man, but did not do anything to help him.

Finally, a third man, who was a Samaritan came by. He felt badly for the man and stopped to help. He poured oil and wine into his wounds. He put bandages on the man, and took him to an inn. He gave the innkeeper money and told him to care for the man.

Jesus explained that the Samaritan is the one who did what God wants us to do. We call this story, "The Good Samaritan."

JESUS TEACHES US TO CARE FOR OTHERS

One day, Jesus told this story. He said, “Once there was a man who was going from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way, robbers stopped him. They beat him up, took his things, and left him almost dead.

“Soon an important man came by, but he did not stop to help the hurt man. Later, another man came down the road. He did not help, either—he just kept walking.

“But then, a Samaritan—a man who was from a different place—came by. When the Samaritan man saw the hurt man, he felt sorry for the man. He cleaned up the man’s wounds, put him on his donkey, and took him to an inn. He told the innkeeper to take care of the hurt man. He even gave the innkeeper money to pay for the hurt man to stay there.”

At the end of the story, Jesus asked who was a neighbor to the hurt man. Someone said, “The one who showed mercy to him!”

Jesus said, “Go help other people and show them mercy just like the Samaritan did!”
